210 W. Main Street – Contributing

At this location is a two-story rectangular American Foursquare dwelling constructed ca. 1915. The true style of the house is masked by additions and renovations. The inappropriate mansard roof addition needs to be removed in order to restore this house to its original design.