

115 Coolidge Avenue – Contributing

Located at 115 Coolidge Avenue is a two-story, brick, rectangular Craftsman style dwelling built ca. 1920. The house has a continuous poured concrete foundation, a gable roof of asphalt shingles, an exterior wall brick chimney and exterior of brick veneer. On the main (N) façade is a partial-width, gable roof porch with square brick columns and a solid brick railing with a concrete cap. The main entrance has an original, four-light and single wood panel Craftsman door. Windows are original, three-over-one-vertical-light double hung wood sash. The first floor's main façade has a five-over-one vertical light double hung wood sash window flanked by two-over-one double hung wood sash windows. On the east, façade is a secondary entrance with an original glass and wood door. At the roofline of the east façade is a large gable roof dormer with paired, three-over-one-vertical-light double hung wood sash windows and knee brace brackets at the eaves. At the roof eaves are purlins, knee brace brackets and exposed eave rafters.

Located to the rear of the dwelling is an original, single-bay, brick garage with a gable roof of asphalt shingles and replacement metal panel overhead track garage door. Contributing
