

536 S. Hough Street – Contributing

Located at 536 S. Hough Street is a one-and one-half-story, frame, gabled ell Folk dwelling built ca. 1880. This building was moved to this location in the early 20th century and became the home for the Hastings family. The house has a continuous brick foundation, a gable roof of asphalt shingles, an interior wall brick chimney and an exterior of replacement weatherboard siding. On the main (E) a shed roof porch enclosed ca. 1920 for a sunroom with a frame skirt wall, an original single-light and two wood panel exterior door and three-over-two fixed-light glass and wood windows. The main entrance has a ca. 1970, glass and wood door. Windows are ca. 1980, one-over-one double hung vinyl sash. On the north façade is a shed roof bay with a triple set of one-over-one double hung vinyl sash windows.

Off the northwest corner of the dwelling is a ca. 1975, single-bay, frame garage with no visible door and an exterior of weatherboard siding. Noncontributing
