

638 S. Hough Street – Contributing

At this location is a two-story rectangular intersecting-gable roof dwelling built ca. 1890. This Folk Victorian house with Italianate influence has a brick foundation, a gable roof of asphalt shingles and an exterior of vinyl siding. The main entrance has a ca. 1970, paneled wood door and original rectangular transom above which is a wood mansard roof canopy with scroll brackets. Windows are ca. 1970, nine-over-nine and six-over-six double hung wood sash with wood cornice surrounds with a saw-tooth frieze and corner blocks. On the projecting bay of the main façade is a bay window with a metal mansard roof, a bracketed eave, a saw-tooth frieze and three nine-over-nine wood sash windows below which are decorative inset wood panels. The windows have wood cornices.

Located to the rear of the dwelling is a ca. 1970, single-bay, frame garage with a wood panel overhead track door, a front gable roof of asphalt shingles and an exterior of vinyl siding. The garage is connected to the house via an open, two-story breezeway. Noncontributing
