

645 S. Hough Street – Contributing

Located at 645 S. Hough Street is a two-story side-gabled Colonial Revival style dwelling built ca. 1925. The dwelling has a continuous rock-faced concrete block foundation, a gable roof of asphalt shingles, an exterior of masonite siding and an interior wall brick chimney. On the main (W) façade is a gable roof entry porch with original square wood columns. The main entrance has an original six-panel wood door with original eight-light glass and wood sidelights. Windows are both original, eight-over-eight wood sash and ca. 1980, vinyl sash with six-over-six muntin bars flanked by wood shutters and having aluminum awnings on the main façade's lower façade. On the south façade is an original shed roof sunroom with eight-light wood casement windows.

Off the northeast corner of the dwelling is an original, two-bay, frame garage with a hipped roof of asphalt shingles, an exterior of weatherboard siding and ca. 1980, metal panel overhead track doors. Contributing
