

PROCLAMATION

Killarney Day in Barrington

March 15, 2018

WHEREAS, the town of Killarney is situated at the base of Ireland's highest mountain range; and

WHEREAS, Killarney is the home of the Killarney National Park, Ross Castle, St. Mary's Cathedral, Muckross House and Abbey, and the Torc Waterfall; and

WHEREAS, Killarney is one of the top tourist destinations for both Irish and foreign travelers; and

WHEREAS, the mayor of Killarney is the cousin of Barrington's Andrew Kelleher at whose invitation the mayor has come to visit our area, and;

WHEREAS, the mayor of Killarney, Ireland, Niall Kelleher, will be visiting the Village of Barrington on March 15, 2018, and;

WHEREAS, the Village of Barrington would be pleased to have a "sister city" relationship with Killarney, Ireland, encouraging the residents of each place to visit the other and discover its special attributes, and;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karen Darch, President of the Board of Trustees for the Village of Barrington, Cook and Lake Counties, Illinois, do hereby proclaim Killarney to be a "Sister City" and March 15, 2018 as Killarney Day in the Village of Barrington and do hereby encourage our residents to welcome the Mayor of Killarney and, if luck would have it, encourage them to visit Killarney someday.

Dated this 26th day of February

Karen Darch, Village President
