

PROCLAMATION

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF SAFETY ENGINEERS' NAOSH WEEK/OSHP DAY 2012

WHEREAS, more than 4,500 people died from job-related injuries, 12 people a day, in the U.S. in 2010, and millions more people suffered occupational injuries and illnesses; and

WHEREAS, small businesses with fewer than 500 employees represent about 99.9 percent of the total businesses in the U.S. and create roughly two out of every three new jobs in the U.S. today; and

WHEREAS, in an effort to help small businesses grow and succeed, during NAOSH Week ASSE and its members will be distributing important information to small businesses on how effective occupational safety and health efforts can help them move their businesses forward, contribute positively to the bottom line, help protect their employees and property from risk; and

WHEREAS, businesses spend $170 billion a year on costs tied to occupational injuries, health care and illnesses; and

WHEREAS, occupational safety, health and environmental professionals work around the clock so millions of people leave their workplace injury and illness free to return home to their families and friends each day; and

WHEREAS, during the week of May 6-12, 2012, North American Occupational Safety and Health (NAOSH) Week, American Society of Safety Engineers members, the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) and corporate/association partners will mobilize in an effort to increase employer, employee and public awareness of the importance of being safe at work; to raise awareness of the role and contribution of safety, health and environmental professionals; encourage safe practices; to provide small businesses with work safety resources; to help companies and organizations enhance their workplace safety efforts; and

WHEREAS, on May 9, 2012, occupational safety and health professionals will be recognized on Occupational Safety and Health Professional (OSHP) Day for the work they do to keep people safe at work, building an effective safety culture at their company, preserving a company's good reputation, building employee pride, and helping their communities.

NOW, THEREFORE, Karen Y. Darch, President of the Board of Trustees for the Village of Barrington, Cook and Lake Counties, Illinois, do hereby proclaim May 6-12, 2012 to be North American Occupational Safety and Health Week (NAOSH) and Wednesday, May 9, 2012 to be Occupational Safety and Health Professional (OSHP) Day;

Given, under my hand and seal of the Village of Barrington this ninth day of April, 2012.
