Village of Barrington At a Glance

About the Village

A beautiful, historic suburb just 40 miles northwest of Chicago, Barrington's 10,722 residents pride themselves on the Village's hometown charm and small-town heritage. The Village of Barrington serves as the hub of activity for the 90-square-mile Barrington area, which consists of 7 independent villages and more than 47,000 residents. The Metra train stops right in the village center, easily connecting Barrington to the City of Chicago. The Village of Barrington is a home rule municipality functioning under the President – Trustee form of government. In the Village, the Village President, Board of Trustees (6 members), and a Village Clerk are elected at large to staggered four-year terms. The President and Board of Trustees are responsible for appointing a Village Manager and hiring personnel to staff the operating departments. Barrington is a full-service community, including Police, Fire, Public Works that includes all public infrastructure management, Development Services that includes building, zoning and planning functions, Financial Services that includes information technology, the Village Manager's Office that includes human resources, business license, clerk functions, and communications, marketing & events, and Barrington's White House which is a cultural and community center for concerts, performances, lectures, and art exhibits and private events.
